“I DIED LAST NIGHT”

Johnny Ramsey (Deceased)

In 2 Samuel 14:14, we learn that “we must all needs die, and are as water spilled upon the ground, which cannot be gathered up again.” Surely, “It is appointed unto man once to die” (Hebrews 9:27). But what a difference whether we die in sin (John 8:21), or “in the Lord” (Revelation 14:13). Job reminds us that no man is sure of life (Job 24:22), and Isaac stated in Genesis 27:2 – “I know not the day of my death.”

An unusual business leader often shocked his banker friend by abruptly saying: “I died last night: where does that leave my family, financially?” That was his quaint way of telling the banker to help him with his money so as to better provide for his loved ones. But, friend, suppose YOU had died last night: where would you spend eternity? What shape, spiritually, would you and your loved ones be in if death had intervened yesterday? Perhaps we all are guilty of passing over the serious nature of this solemn idea. Do we honestly realize that the next funeral may be our own? Psalm 90:12 should express our genuine request: “So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.”

If death comes for us soon, what heritage have we left our children? Will our sons be gospel preachers and elders the Lord needs so desperately in the years to come? Will our daughters be the spiritual, modest women the church must have (1 Peter 3:1-3)? If our life upon earth is soon over, have we left behind us souls who were saved by our teaching and example (1 Timothy 4:16)? Will we have nothing precious to remember, or shall God remember us for our goodness (Nehemiah 2:20; 13:31)? (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

Johnny Ramsey (Deceased)

Job 3:17 speaks of a place "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest." Hebrews 4:9 mentions the rest that yet remains for the people of Jehovah. And, beautifully, in 2 Corinthians 5:1, Paul mentions "a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" awaiting the faithful Christian! Death holds no sting and the grave no victory for devoted saints (1 Corinthians 15:54-58). It makes an everlasting difference just who died last night. Comfort one another with these words!

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to the Bob Terrell Family at the death of their daughter, Cindy Terrell Owen who died from cancer on Thursday of last week. Her funeral service will be conducted in Jackson, Tennessee. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made for an educational fund for her children. The address for Bob Terrell is P.O. Box 7400, Spanish Fort, AL 36577.
