RESOLUTIONS WORTH KEEPING

Someone has said, “A New Year's resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other.” Unfortunately, this statement often proves to be true. We make resolutions to lose weight, to stop some bad habit, and many other worthwhile goals. However, our resolutions are often short lived because we lose interest and commitment. As you consider your personal resolutions for the coming year, I would like to suggest three that are always worth keeping and that deserve our interest and commitment.

1. Study your Bible daily
2. Be more involved in the work at Morrison than ever before
3. Do more for the Lord than you have ever been willing to do in the Past

We hope that your holidays have been enjoyable and we wish you a Happy New Year. We are looking forward to a great 2007 in the work of the Lord at Morrison.

Joey
